31st Annual RIE® CONFERENCE – April 4, 2020

Resources for Infant Educators®, (RIE®), is proud to announce its 31st Annual Infant/Toddler Conference. The conference will begin with a networking reception on Friday, April 3rd and continue on Saturday, April 4, 2020 from 7:45 am - 4:30 pm. This yearly event is open to all those involved in supporting the healthy development of infants and toddlers, including parents, teachers, childcare professionals, doctors, nurses and early interventionists of all types. The conference will commence with a keynote address by Dr. Judyth Weaver entitled Letting our Infants Teach Us How to Be Better Adults. Conference attendees will also hear from a number of other notable experts from across the country addressing topics such as conflict, caregiving, relationships, and diapering in two workshops of their choice.

RIE is a non-profit educational organization founded in 1978 to create the secure beginnings all babies need to develop to their full, authentic potential. We do this by teaching Magda Gerber's Educaring Approach to parents and professionals worldwide
